A happy Grasshopper is dancing, singing and playing his violin with all his heart. He sees an Ant passing by, bearing along with great toil (辛苦) a wheatear (麥穗) to store (儲存) for the winter.

"Come and sing with me instead of working so hard", says the Grasshopper "Let's have fun together."

"I must store food for the winter", says the Ant, "and I advise (勸告) you to do the same."

"Don't worry about winter, it's still very far away", says the Grasshopper, laughing at him. But the Ant doesn't listen and continues (繼續) his work.

When the winter comes, the hungry Grasshopper goes to the Ant's house and humbly (謙虛地) begs (乞討) for something to eat.

"If you listen to my advice in the summer you will not now be in need (在窮困中)," says the Ant. "I'm afraid you will have to go to bed hungrily," and he closes the door.
